Strengths & improvements

WHAT WORKS

- Repetitive question format creates hypnotic viewing pattern
- Wide range of ages and dosages builds curiosity
- Teaser in title ('You won't believe the last answer') drives completion
- High contrast in responses (0 to 188 units) creates surprise
- Relatable medical professionals as subjects builds trust
- Fast pacing maintains attention
- Strong engagement metrics prove format effectiveness

COULD IMPROVE

- Missing clear call-to-action to book consultation or learn more
- Could include brief educational context about unit ranges
- No explicit branding or practice information visible
- Could add text overlays highlighting surprising numbers for skimmers
- Ending feels abrupt without summary or next step
